1) Ruth
gleans
in the early morning <boqer>.
Ruth 2:7

2) Boaz
positively
affirms
Ruth's position to glean in his field, and offers her
fresh water.
Ruth 2:9-12

3) Boaz invites
Ruth for food;
she eats and
goes back to work.
Boaz commands
the men to leave extra
grain for her.
Ruth 2:14-16

4) Ruth gleans
“until even,”
then beats out
the gleanings,
and walks back
to Naomi's home
in the city.
Ruth 2:17-18

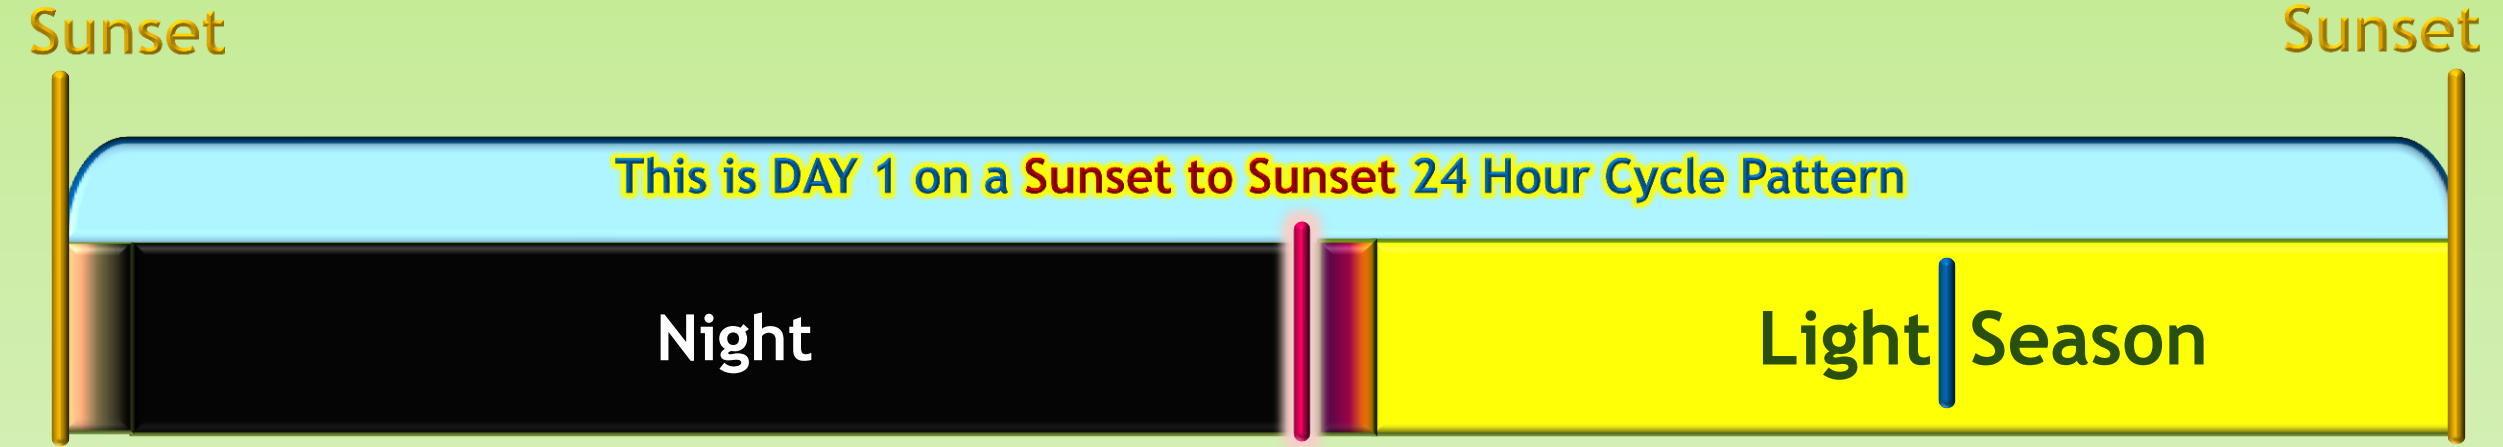

5) Ruth
eats first
then brings
the grain
to share
with Naomi.
Ruth 2:18

6) “WHERE HAST
THOU GLEANED
TO DAY?” (2:19)
Note: This Night
Season is not part of the same cycle where
Ruth was gleaning.
This night falls on Day 2 - or the “tomorrow”

A Summary For Ruth's Reply

Exactly what is the significance of this interesting scenario?

The INFUSION of any possible ERROR such as a Sunset day-start in the Scriptures is effectively ELIMINATED!

Sunset Theory is NOT supported in this historic story.

Only Dawn: Zion's New Day Order is rightfully recognized and fully supported by the Set-Apart Scriptures.

Ruth & Naomi
will guide you in your choice.
